Foreword

Today is your day and mine, the only day we have in which to play our part. What our part may signify in the great whole we do not understand; but we are here to play it, and now is our time.

This we know: it is a part of action, not for whining.

-- David Starr Jordan

Another year has been added to the history of Chilocco, and with it has been realized many of the plans of the Class of '37, plans which will help each one to play his part in the days which are yours and mine. In issuing this brief number of the Chiloccoan the seniors hope to record a portion of the activities that have been contributed to their training by the Chilocco Indian Agricultural School.

L. E. CORRELL, Superintendent

Dedication

To Mrs. Emma T. Antone, teacher and friend to thousands of boys and girls who have attended Chilocco since 1910, this Chiloccoan is dedicated in recognition of her many years of unbroken interest, sympathetic understanding, and generous sharing of time for the countless activities that make up the life of a school. That this sentiment should be expressed for those boys and girls of other years,
and for the present seniors is the sincere wish of the Class of '37.

MRS. EMMA T. ANTONE Teacher

DURING BACK to the year of 1934 which found the Class of '37 in the freshman year, their president was George Sunday; then in the years following came Falling Buzzard, president in 1935; Howard Eldridge, president in 1936. The two boys named first were not members of the senior class in 1937, both having left school previously.

Honors have been taken by this class during their four years as follows: football champions 1937; softball champions 1936; basketball champions 1935 and 1934. The girls won the class basketball championship in 1934, and the base ball tournament in 1935. During 1936-'37 the senior girls won the class tournament in both basketball and volley ball.

A senior's calendar of memories would surely include the Junior-Senior Prom, when the class of '37 were juniors, and their classmate, Marcelle Burnette, was May Queen. Other events in this calender would recall that in 1936 Lucien Daugherty was a member of the nationl champion team in poultry judging at Chicago; that the outstanding senior girl in Home Economics Department was Sarah Sunday; that the two highest ranking boys in the Agricultural Department were first Eugene Brown; and second Albert McKellop. In the Trades Department the boy ranking highest was Richard Pumpkin.

Senior boys who have won honors on the school football squad were Andrew Jefferson, Howard Eldridge, Ben Parris, Henry Shaw, George Littlecrow, Vernon Aitson, Calvin Neakedhead and Pleasa Neugin. Those winning honors in base-ball were Vernon Aitson, Key Ketcher, Gassler York, and Ben Parris.

ENTRANCE AT HAWORTH HALL

I think we may assert that in a hundred men there are more than ninety who are what they are, good or bad, useful or pernicious to society, from the instruction they have received. It is on education that depend the great differences observable among them.

STUDENT COUNCIL 1936 '37.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Chilocco Student Council was organized February 28, 1936, combining the boys' council organized in 1933 by Mr. Harry S. Keller, boys' advisor, with the girls' council organized in 1935 by Miss Edna B. Stowell, girls' advisor.

This group has been active in working out projects for the welfare of the school. Meetings are held on alternate Thursday evenings to discuss campus problems. The council has sponsored a dinner for heads of departments, group leaders' party, joint assemblies, and played a part in other student activities.

Its aims are to develop student leadership and responsibility, to promote finer social contacts, and to raise the standard of student ideals.

The present members are Howard Kilpatrick, president; DeRoy Skinner, vice president; Nancy Seabolt, secretary; Marcelle Burnette, reporter; Virgil Holcomb, Raymond Harjo, Joe Payton, Pauline Stites, Virginia Scritchfield, Ida Mae Butter, Beulah Sixkiller, Joe Grayson, Susie Fox, Donald Sharp, and Estella Sunday.

CHILOCCO

School Song

Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
Where the prairies never end.
Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
You are still our famous friend.
School of Schools you are the best.
You're the school that stands the test.
You're the school that brings us fame.
Ever we'll revere thy name.

CHORUS

Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco; We love our campus grand.
We love your lawns and shady walks where graceful maples stand.
We love your sunsets and the stars at night
reflected in the lake so bright.
We love the cardinal's cherry call,
And the bright red maples in the fall.

Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
Where your old stone buldings stand
Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
Ivy covered they are grand.
They are monuments of hope
As we on learning's ladder grope.
School that makes our dreams come true,
We are ever loyal to you.

Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
When the morning bugle calls,
Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
We are glad to fill your halls.
We come here that we may learn,
Life's great secrets to discern.
Teach us how to work and play,
Bring us something new each day.

Conclusion

Twenty-three tribes are represented in the class of '37, the three largest groups being the Cherokee tribe with fifty-one; Choctaw, twenty-three; Creek, seventeen. In this group of one hundred and thirty-two seniors are young people who will expect to make a living on farms; others will expect to follow a trade in some town or community; some will perhaps prepare to be teachers, social workers, or nurses. In these or similar tasks the class of '37 will hope to find the fulfillment of the training offered them by the Chilocco Indian Agricultural School.
